School Of Social Work
Global Social Work Grant Application
2010

Description: The School of Social Work (SSW) will provide limited funds to MSW students to support global field placement and special studies experiences. The awards will be up to $3000 and will provide partial support for the placement. Awards will be made as part of the student’s financial aid package, and will be forfeited if the travel does not occur, or if the student fails to comply with all school and university policies regarding international travel and professional performance in their placement setting.

Eligibility: Applicants must be enrolled MSW students who have been accepted into the global social work program to do global special studies or field placements. Students going abroad for volunteer work (non-credit) are not eligible for this award.

Deadline: Jan 29, 2010, 5:00pm. Please submit applications to the OFI (Office of Field Instruction) office.
