The School of Social Work at SIUC is offering an exciting Study Abroad course, in Cairo, Egypt December 29th 2008-January 10 2009. Building on the concepts of globalization, and international social work education, the course intends to provide USA students with a unique experience in human services of developing worlds. Students will have the opportunity to learn about social policy, developed in Egypt, to address social problems i.e. poverty, unemployment, drug addiction, migration, and AIDS.

The estimated cost is $2750, including airfare, transportation, meals (breakfast and lunch), educational materials, and some tourist visits. The course fee (3 credit hrs) is payable to either SIUC or your home university.

This course is also available for students in human service professions, and other related fields.

Dr. Hussein Soliman, Professor, and Dr. Wayne Paris at SIUC will be conducting the course. For further details please contact Dr. Soliman by email at either: soliman@siu.edu or by phone (618) 453-5358.