

Good Neighborhoods Technical Assistance Center Workshops 2007-2008 Offerings

Murals and Beyond: Developing Community through Art

January 20, 2007

- Linda Burnham, Editor of APInews on the Community Arts Network website (www.communityarts.net); arts consultant, teacher, lecturer, and writer; and founder of High Performance magazine
- Marcia Ochoa, Assistant Professor of Community Studies at University of California – Santa Cruz and author of Queen for a Day: Transformistas, Misses, and Mass Media in Venezuela
- Rebeka Rodriguez, Program Director for Education and Community Engagement in San Francisco's Intersection for the Arts (www.theintersection.org)

Families and Schools

January 23, 2007

- Michael Woolley, University of Michigan Assistant Professor of Social Work and Education¹

Grant Writing

January 31, 2007

- Larry Gant, University of Michigan Professor of Social Work

Community Organizing for Social and Political Action and Advocacy

March 15, 2007

- Grace Lee Boggs, Activist and Founder of The Boggs Center to Nurture Community Leadership
- Don Cooney, Kalamazoo City Commissioner and Western Michigan University Associate Professor of Social Work
- Ponsella Hardaway, Executive Director of MOSES

Grant Writing

March 22, 2007

- Hannah Jensen, University of Michigan MSW candidate
- Samantha Hallman, University of Michigan MSW candidate
- Hussein Yusuf, University of Michigan MSW candidate
- Katherine Slotsema, University of Michigan MSW candidate

Advanced Youth Development

April 12, 2007

¹ Professor Woolley is currently Assistant Professor at University of Chicago's School of Social Administration

- Debra Taylor, Program Director of Detroit Youth Foundation
- Gaylotta Murray, Director of Community Investment Strategies for United Way for Southeastern Michigan

A Walk around the Block: Community Asset Mapping

May 31, 2007

- Larry Gant, University of Michigan Professor of Social Work

Health, Nutrition and Community Gardening

June 7, 2007

- Edith Kieffer, University of Michigan Associate Professor and Associate Research Professor of Social Work
- Ashley Atkinson, Program Director for Greening of Detroit

Grant Writing

October 18, 2007

- Lisa Leverette, Program Coordinator for Community Connections Grant Program, Prevention Network

Grant Writing

December 18, 2007

- Patricia Miller, Program Manager for Good Neighborhoods Technical Assistance Center and University of Michigan Adjunct LEO Lecturer of Social Work

Economic Development Forum

January 11, 2008

- Michael Barr, University of Michigan Professor of Law
- Elsie Harper-Anderson, University of Michigan Assistant Professor at the Taubman College of Architecture and Urban Planning
- George Fulton, University of Michigan Research Professor at the Institute of Labor and Industrial Relations
- Donald R. Grimes, University of Michigan Senior Research Specialist at the Institute of Labor and Industrial Relations
- Grace Lee Boggs, Activist and Founder of The Boggs Center to Nurture Community Leadership
- Michelle Rafferty, Research Specialist for the United Way for Southeastern Michigan
- Deborah Younger, Executive Director of the Detroit office of the Local Initiatives Support Corporation (LISC)
- Deborah Groban Olson, Attorney at Law and Executive Director of the Capital Ownership Group
- Olga Savic, Director of Strategy and External Affairs at the Detroit Economic Growth Corporation
- Ray M. Waters, President of ShoreBank Enterprise Detroit

Eliminating Food Deserts

March 10, 2008

- Mari Gallagher, Principal of Mari Gallagher Research and Consulting Group
- Michael Curis, President of Curis Enterprises
- Malik Yakini, Executive Director of Nsoroma Institute Public School Academy; C.E.O. of Black Star Educational Management; Member of the Community Food Security Coalition; and Founder and Chairman of the Detroit Black Community Food Security Network
- Olga Savic, Director of Strategy and External Affairs at the Detroit Economic Growth Corporation
- Dr. Oran B. Hesterman, President and C.E.O of the Fair Food Foundation and former Program Director at the W.K. Kellogg Foundation

Community Partnerships with Local Law Enforcement

April 17, 2008

- Linda Parker, Director of Michigan Roundtable for Diversity and Inclusion
- Brian Fountain, Community Relations Officer for the Detroit Police Department
- Sheila Jackson, Program Director of the Jefferson East Business Association
- Tamela Aikens, Executive Director of the Detroit Community Justice Partnership

How to Run an Effective Meeting

June 28, 2008

- John Tropman, University of Michigan Professor of Social Work

Grassroots Fundraising

July 15, 2008

- Charlene Turner Johnson, Executive Director of the Michigan Non-profit Association

Advanced Grant Writing

August 6, 2008

- Patricia Miller, Program Manager for Good Neighborhoods Technical Assistance Center and University of Michigan Adjunct LEO Lecturer of Social Work

Program Development and Management²

² Offered at part of the Good Neighborhoods Resident Leadership Academy

August 27, 2008

- Charlene Turner Johnson, Executive Director of the Michigan Non-profit Association

Strategic Planning and Futuring³

September 17, 2008

- John Martin, University of Michigan Adjunct LEO Lecturer of Social Work

Fundraising⁴

October 15, 2008

- John Martin, University of Michigan Adjunct LEO Lecturer of Social Work
- Molly Resnik, Social Worker at Safe House

Starting Your Own Block Club

November 10, 2008

- Alice Thompson, C.E.O. of Black Family Development, Inc

Technology and Strategic Communication⁵

November 12, 2008

- Brian Boyle, Partner of Model D Media

³ Offered at part of the Good Neighborhoods Resident Leadership Academy

⁴ Offered at part of the Good Neighborhoods Resident Leadership Academy

⁵ Offered at part of the Good Neighborhoods Resident Leadership Academy